

HB 810 Helps Tight Economy and North Carolina Business and Consumers

Who Supports HB 810?

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE: June 1, 2011

North Carolina consumers joined legislators in support of consumer installment lending through HB 810.

The need for a small change for the traditional consumer installment loan industry after a 28-year moratorium was acknowledged by the House Banking Committee. On May 26, a bipartisan vote of 15 to 6 approved HB 810, which allows for continued access to small dollar loans in NC. The bill is headed to the House floor for a vote this week.

The NC House Banking Committee acknowledges the military, NC Attorney General, NC Commissioner of Banks, and consumers in their vote in favor of HB 810.

Who Supports HB 810?

The House Banking Committee acknowledged the fact that HB 810 was in complete alignment with the goals of the military to protect their enlisted men and women. Chris McKinley, who previously served in the Navy for ten years, and is now President of Green Cap Financial, spoke in Raleigh to the legislative committee: "A full understanding of this bill shows that it is good for North Carolina business, good for consumers, meets all military requirements for small dollar loans, and helps keep money available during this tight economy."
